BLENDED COST PER CLICK

The four San Diego locations generated 244 clicks at a blended cost of thirty eight cents. Torrey Del Mar led click volume, while Carmel Mountain produced the strongest click through rate.

Directional benchmark

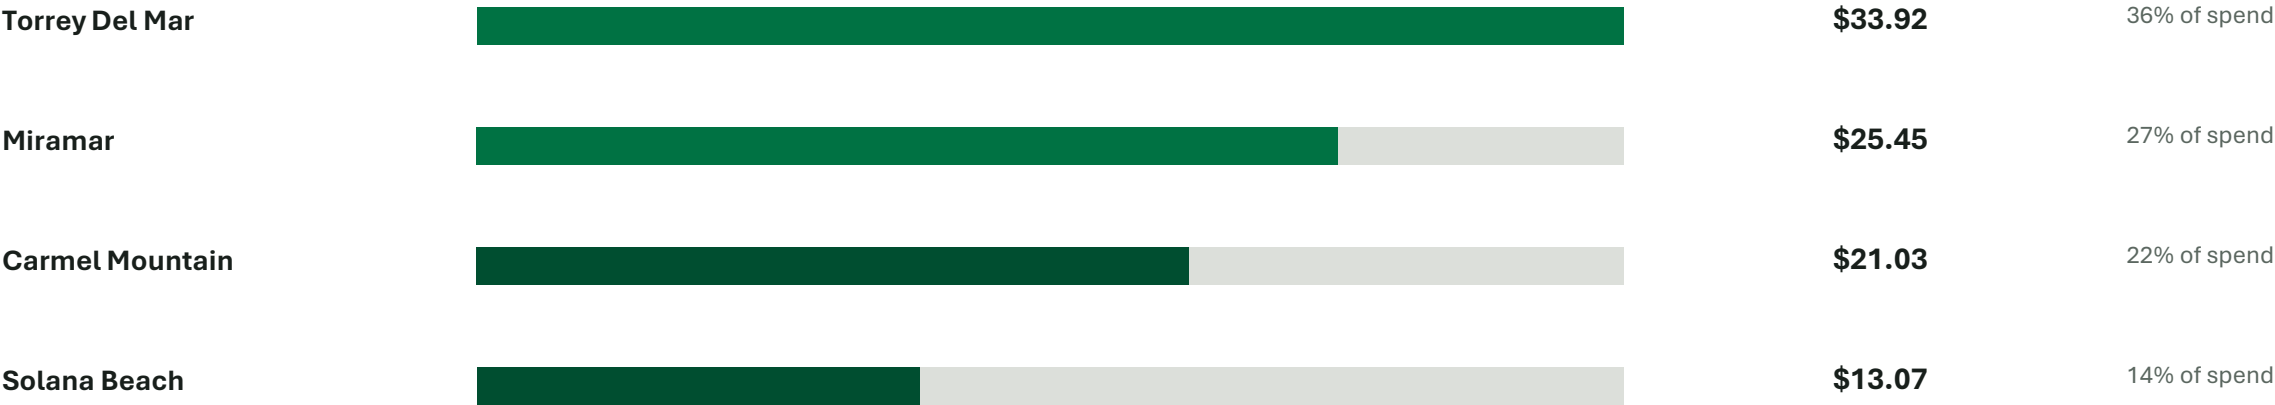

91% lower

The $0.38 blended cost per click is 91% below the $4.14 search benchmark for Shopping, Collectibles, and Gifts.

Because these campaigns use Performance Max inventory, this is a directional cost comparison, not an exact format match.

San Diego budget allocation

All four San Diego locations were active during the reporting period. Torrey Del Mar represented 36% of weekly spend.

Cost per click by location

Every San Diego location remained below the $4.14 directional search benchmark. The four locations blended to $0.38.

Torrey Del Mar		$0.32	92% below benchmark
Miramar		$0.38	91% below benchmark
Carmel Mountain		$0.50	88% below benchmark
Solana Beach		$0.47	89% below benchmark

What we are doing next

All four San Diego locations are buying traffic efficiently. The next week should build on the strongest local engagement signals and keep the reporting focused on these markets.

01 Build on Torrey Del Mar volume

Torrey Del Mar produced 107 clicks at a thirty two cent cost per click while maintaining an 8.80% click through rate.

02 Use Carmel Mountain engagement

Carmel Mountain delivered the strongest click through rate at 10.05%, with 42 clicks from 418 impressions.

03 Keep all four locations visible

Continue comparing Miramar and Solana Beach with the two leaders while connecting platform traffic with store level outcomes.

Reporting note

Platform delivery and traffic metrics are verified for the four San Diego locations from July 20 through July 26. The industry comparison uses the 2026 WordStream Shopping, Collectibles, and Gifts search benchmark of $4.14 per click.

Because the campaigns use Performance Max inventory, the benchmark is directional. Store level outcomes can add context as they become available.
